PAPA FISH'S LULLABY

by Patricia Hubbell

Illustrated by Susan Eaddy

Beautiful waterscapes created from carefully crafted clay scenes give this sweet, rhyming bedtime story a unique and dramatic backdrop.

Popular author Patricia Hubbell's writing exudes charm and whimsy in her many picture books. Papa Fish's Lullaby is no exception! A busy day in an underwater world comes to a close as Papa Fish sings his Little Fish to sleep. Our little fish encounters humpback whales, green sea turtles, sea horses, sea lions, sea otters, dolphins, moon jellies, octopus, geese and gulls. Gorgeous anemones, urchins, algae and coral set the stage. Eaddy's meticulous research on species and region give this book the strength of nonfiction reference, while her soothing images provide the softness and comfort of a bedtime story.

KEY POINTS

- Patricia Hubbell is a much-loved children's book writer and poet. Her perfectly cadenced rhymes will be swimming in readers' heads long after the book has been closed for the night.
- The three-dimensional artwork provides children with opportunities to explore the ocean world through the illustrations as they listen (or read) the story.
